

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES OF MONTANA

10.41.118 LOCAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

- (1) A local advisory committee is a group of persons who advise and assist decision makers on the design and maintenance of relevant career and vocational/technical education programs based on the assessed needs of the community, region, state, or nation. The advisory committee's primary function is to provide industry-specific information and assistance to the career and vocational/technical education program.

Authorizing statute(s): Sec. 20-7-301, MCA

Implementing statute(s): 20-7-301, 20-7-302. 1, MCA

History: NEW, 1980 MAR p. 1502, Eff. 6/30/80; AMD, 1984 MAR p. 818, Eff. 5/18/84; AMD, 1993 MAR p. 296, Eff. 2/26/93; AMD, 2002 MAR p. 780, Eff. 3/15/02.