

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES OF MONTANA

24.26.1001 FILING OF LABOR ORGANIZATION'S BYLAWS

- (1) Any employee organization seeking certification from the board as exclusive representative of a group of employees must first file with the board a copy of the labor organization's written bylaws. If revisions or changes are made, the bylaws must be refiled.
- (2) The bylaws must provide for and guarantee that:
 - (a) provisions are made for democratic organization and procedures;
 - (b) elections are held pursuant to adequate standards and safeguards;
 - (c) controls are provided for the regulation of officers and agents having fiduciary responsibility; and
 - (d) sound accounting, fiscal control, and annual audit requirements exist.

Authorizing statute(s): 39-31-104, 39-32-103, MCA

Implementing statute(s): 39-31-206, 39-32-113, MCA

History: NEW, Eff. 6/4/74; AMD, 1993 MAR p. 3026, Eff. 1/1/94; TRANS from ARM 24.26.603 and AMD, 2020 MAR p. 2422, Eff. 12/25/20.