

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES OF MONTANA

24.40.109 INTERESTED PARTIES

- (1) The department is an interested party to all issues adjudicated regarding claims for benefits and employer tax liability.
- (2) A claimant is an interested party to all adjudication of claimant's eligibility and qualification for unemployment insurance benefits.
- (3) Except as provided by 39-51-605, MCA, and ARM 24.40.111, a base period employer is an interested party to an adjudication of the claimant's separation from employment with that employer. An employer is not an interested party to an adjudication of nonseparation issues related to a claim.
- (4) An employer is an interested party to adjudication of the employer's tax determinations, including the employer's tax liability, contribution rate, application for refund, subject wages, and other tax contribution-related issues.
- (5) The department shall provide only interested parties with written notice of a determination, redetermination, hearing, or appeal of each issue adjudicated by the department. Only an interested party has standing to request a redetermination, hearing, or appeal.
