MONTANA SECRETARY OF STATE

NOTICE OF DISCLAIMER

This site contains provisions of the Administrative Rules of Montana.

The Montana Secretary of State's Administrative Rules Services publishes the administrative rules promulgated by state agencies. Administrative rules are developed under a process outlined in the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. Each agency files with the Secretary of State a copy of each rule adopted by it or a reference to the rule as contained in the proposal notice. Once adopted, the Secretary of State publishes the administrative rules in the Administrative Rules of Montana (ARM).

Throughout the process of which administrative rules are developed, the Secretary of State relies on each state agency. Although every attempt is made to ensure that the information placed on this site is accurate and timely, Administrative Rules Services role is ministerial in the publication of rules. The Administrative Rules Services cannot assure the accuracy of any specific provision originating from this site.

The Secretary of State's Office, including its work units and employees, will not be responsible or liable for any loss, consequence, or damage resulting directly or indirectly from reliance on the accuracy, reliability, or timeliness of the information. Any person or entity who relies on information obtained from this website does so at the person's or entity's own risk. The user assumes the risk of verifying any materials used or relied upon.

Please contact the applicable state agency directly with any questions as to the writing, content, substance, interpretation, accuracy, or validity of any administrative rule.

Additionally, please note that the content on websites or state of Montana resources outside the control of the Secretary of State may be linked from this website.
