

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES OF MONTANA

23.3.121 ROAD SIGNS AND ROAD RULES

- (1) In order to be
 - (a) ascertain the meaning of standard warning and regulatory signs and understand what the driver should do upon approaching them; and
 - (b) successfully answer questions on highway laws and regulations, either orally or written.
- (2) Illiterates must be examined orally by having the examiner state the questions on the Road Rules Test, and by having the applicant identify the signs on the Sign Test.
- (3) Applicants who are observed cheating on the examination must immediately be disqualified on that portion of the examination.
- (4) The maximum score for each written test is 100%. For each incorrectly marked answer, the following points must be deducted:
 - (a) Operator Rules: 5 points (minimum passing score 75) ;
 - (b) Chauffeur Rules: 3.3 points (minimum passing score 76.9) ; and
 - (c) Signs: 10 points (minimum passing score 80) .
 - (d) Combined Operator/Signs Test: 7 or less wrong is passing score.

licensed, an applicant must be able to:

Authorizing statute(s): Sec. 44-1-103 MCA

Implementing statute(s): 61-5-101 et seq. MCA

History: Eff. 12/31/72; AMD, Eff. 12/5/76; AMD, 1983 MAR p. 853, Eff 7/15/83.